Attorney for Defendant, LIZETTE MENDEZ

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LIZETTE MENDEZ,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:21 CR 95 NODJ/BAM

Stipulation and Order To Delay Bureau of Prisons Report Date

The parties to this matter, by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. Ms. Mendez has been ordered to report to the Bureau of Prisons no later than September 9, 2024 to begin serving her 51 month sentence. The parties agree that Ms. Mendez' report date should be delayed until December 10, 2024 for reasons discussed below.

2. Ms. Mendez' counsel has provided government counsel with copies of medical records indicating that Ms. Mendez has two separate and potentially serious medical conditions that require referrals to medical specialist for further diagnosis and potential treatment. As to one condition, Ms. Mendez' primary care physician has estimated that she will not be seen by the specialist until September or October 2024. That time lag is attributable to insurance authorization and the specialists' schedule.

It is so stipulated and agreed.
